Poetry.

Common Things.

BY SAMUEL W. DUFFIELD

The bee from the clover bloom
Is ready to lift his wings;
I found him gathering honey
Out of the common things.

The bird to the maple bough
The twigs and the stubble brings;
He is building his love a cottage
Out of the common things.

The poet sits by himself—
What do you think he sings?
Nothing! He gets no music
Out of the common things!

Communicated.

Another Letter to the Young Man Boggins.

Dear Augustus Claude:—Your learned, overwhelming and jubilant communication was received in due time, but emphatically failed in its obvious purpose of obliging me to immediately descend into "the valley of humiliation." As you took such pains to have me explore that renowned and lowly valley, I am sorry I was not able to abide there for a short time, so as to have made myself capable of now writing you an elaborate essay on the merits and beauties of the place but previous circumstances rendered this impossible. The compliments with which you so abundantly favored me, and the kind assurance that I had your "pity" have wonderfully improved the state of my "constitution." Indeed so astonishing has been the change produced by them and by the "few circumstances" noted in your would-be crushing epistle, that Miss Bella (yes I do know who she is) says I had better advise the other young ladies to add you to their lists of correspondents, but I am inclined to be rather selfish in that respect, and so far have refrained from doing so.

The afternoon of the 1st inst., my servant came to my room where Bella and I were cosily enjoying a confidential tete-a-tete, bringing a letter and a visiting card, saying the gentleman was below awaiting Miss Bella's presence. I opened the former and then read the name on the card, and with a meaning smile to my friend said, "dear the conquering hero' has arrived. I shall not miss you very much though, as I have received another favor from our mutual friend," and with a look of delight I held up your letter for her inspection. "O" said she "I would so like to read the self-complacent version 'Injured Innocence' (the euphonous cognomen by which Bella and I have known you for the past few weeks) no doubt gives to the affair, but I must not keep monsieur waiting," and with the wish that I might have an amusing time reading your letter, but with the fear that I would find it very stale; she gaily tripped out of the room. Now Augustus Claude! could you have seen me after I had finished the perusal of your youthful production, that pleasant little idea of yours about Bella forcing me to appear in a good humor would soon have vanished, I know. It would be impossible for me to be in a bad humor so long as I have such a jolly person as you for a friend. Why even the mention of your name, or a glance at one of your letters, makes me feel good-natured and cheerful all day, and I know of several instances when a glimpse of your beaver in the distance, has been enough to inflict several young ladies of your town, with a perfect misery of merriment. I do not believe you rightly estimate the gift you have for inspiring mirth, my dear.

Miss Bella is busily engaged at the present moment entertaining a certain gentleman, and while she is thus agreeably occupied, I have "taken my pen in hand" to inform you of a few more circumstances which I hope will not tend to increase your weight, for warm weather is approaching. The conversation reported to you really did take place, but Miss Bella was not a participant in much of it. She permitted me to use her name, as she knew I could draw you out to a much greater advantage, by doing so, than by using any other means available just then, as you would then suppose she had "duped" me as she intended (?) when she left you. Soon after my friend arrived at my house, she related to me a great part of the conversation she had with you, in which she recommended you to write to me. She further confessed that though she introduced this subject in seemingly the most innocent and unpremeditated manner, she really turned the conversation in that channel in order to gain my assistance in eradicating from your brain various ideas relative to your own immense importance, which had been injudiciously yet fondly implanted there by a doating mother and grandmother. She also said that she had shown you my letter to her. Considering the above statement I thought that odd to say the least, but as she instantly and satisfactorily explained her motives for doing so, and as I did succeed in my "plans" which were better laid than you imagined, I now know it was the best thing she could have done. She said that she pondered over the matter during the interval which elapsed between the departure of your letter and the receipt of mine, and came to the conclusion that "discretion was the better part of valor" for her at that time. Knowing that I did not really care to make a laughing-stock of you, she permitted you to read my letter, fancying you would recognize the plan, and then give up the absurd notion of your ever being a shining light in society. The prominent reason for this "discreet" behaviour on her part was selfishness, for she knew if you presisted in associating with the other ladies she would lose an accommodating escort to Concerts, Lectures and the like; and as her escorts were scarce just then, it was her evident duty to keep you as personal property. I could not blame her for that, you see. She quickly perceived that you were determined to make yourself ridiculous, and readily devised a scheme by which you would be still further brought forward as the object of our sport and diversion. It is a source of great amusement to her now to relate how eagerly you swallowed the bait she so temptingly and ingeniously offered you. After you left her, inflated with the idea of your supreme consequence, she wrote various spicy notes to some of the young ladies of your town, and not only copied all I had written, but as she was so well acquainted with you, was able to annex many particulars which added greatly to the interest all the femenine gender soon felt concerning your welfare. I have one of the notes in my possession now, and if you wish to see it, I will send you a copy, though it is not very flattering, truly. My dear Augustus, you are very well read, I presume, but you must learn a few more truisms and aphorisms, before you can hope to distinguish yourself by the truth and subtelty of your criticisms and observations on women in general, and Bella Carlton and Millie Dare in particular.

Those remarks about Lieutenant Tagger were rather bitter, but thereby hangs a tale. Four years ago we moved to this town. Miss Carlton then lived in the adjoining house and we soon became intimate friends. Lieut. Tagger was then accounted "the catch" of the place, and before my arrival had been attentively addressing Miss Bella. She soon introduced him to me, and after that he called on me frequently, not because he had "serious intentions," but because he knew I would talk of Bella and praise her to his heart's content. My friend chose to think his motives were different and her manner became freezing to the poor Lieut. and distant to me. I was so little versed in love affairs that I did not understand her any better than did her now wretched adorer, and permitted him to visit me oftener than ever. Finally he could no longer endure the turn affairs had taken and bidding us a hasty good bye, started for some foreign country, thinking to thus ease his aching heart. Bella and I became good friends again, but she would never mention the Lieutenant's name to me. She felt a little revengeful towards me as she supposed I had enticed her lover from her, but she was comforted by the thought that he had also "jilted" me, as she was positive no one could see her idol without loving him. Two years ago my friend moved to your village and soon formed your delightful acquaintance. Now listen to my successful plan. Immediately after I finished my letters to Bella and you a presentiment came to me that perhaps my friend was not the same as formerly, and I remembered the famous saying of Captain Miles Standish "If you wish a thing to be well done, do it yourself; do not leave it to others," and also recollected that he failed in the realization of one of his cherished hopes by trusting a friend instead of following his own maxim, so I concluded to gather wisdom by his experience, and packed my Saratoga and arrived in your town about the time you received my letters. Instead of the families "recently moved from a neighboring city" being "strangers" to me, Judge Hadden is my uncle. I soon explained the object of my visit to my cousin Miss Hadden, and gained her ready and willing cooperation. I then learned of Miss Bella's intimacy with you. This might have discomposed me a little had I remained at home, but the next day when my cousin received one of the above mentioned notes, I was satisfied my friend was as much in earnest about the matter as I was. I might have known that she would never play false to one of her own sex, Augustus Claude's opinion to the contrary notwithstanding. The first young ladies you called on were Miss Hadden and her cousin Miss Lawson, (as you thought.) Four years make considerable change in a lady's appearance, and the faintest suspicion never entered your head that the "blonde" for whom you "conceived a preference," and for whose pleasure you were willing to "assume all the ridiculous postures of which the human body is capable," was really your well-wishing friend Millie Dare. You can imagine the infinite enjoyment I experienced in seeing you thus unconsciously displaying yourself to me. I never expect or hope to pass such an evening again, for another like unto it would kill me.

I remained with my cousin about two weeks, and each day brought gleeful news from one of the circle of merry girls that daily met at my uncle's home. I could tell you any number of jokes perpetrated at your expense, but one little incident must suffice. One young lady a good friend of my cousins and a school friend of mine, had just returned from a long journey abroad and you called on her the evening after her arrival before we had a chance to "forewarn her as we wished her to be." The next morning she came to my uncle's where a party of us were assembled as usual, in great excitement. Almost before she seated herself, she exclaimed "Girls, did any of you ever hear of a Mr. Boggins?" Significant glances were interchanged among us, but not the ghost of a smile was visible on my cousin's face as she replied that she believed she had heard that name mentioned several times. "Well" said our young lady friend, "if he asks permission to visit you, do not allow him to do so on any account, for I really believe the young man is crazy." O dear! I ache yet at the recollection of the paroxysms we then indulged in. The lady was somewhat astonished at such an outburst, and rather angerdly said, "It seems vastly funny to you, but I can assure you, he was a horrid bore to me, and if he asks to visit me again, I know he will receive a decided negative answer." Of course explanations ensued, which somewhat pacified her, but she was still enraged to think she had been fooled by what now proved to be one whom Anna Dickinson would classify among her "nice young men." We then further appeased her by the assurance that she had not gone very far wrong in her opinion, for we had come to the conclusion sometime before that Mr. Boggins' brain was in a very unstable condition.

I returned home in time to receive your letter and Bella's welcome visit. After she finished her story I told mine. She was a little surprised to hear that I had been so near her residence and she not been made aware of the fact, but that is easily explained, as she has moved very slightly in society since she "lost her heart." We were intensely amused with each other's strategems, and then and there composed the letter I sent you. We have been eagerly expecting the reply you would be sure to write, ever since. True we knew about what you would say, but then it would be such glorious fun to have it all down in your hand-writing with your high sounding signature attached.

I received a letter from Miss Hadden this afternoon. She says you are perseveringly modeling yourself after the pattern I gave you, much to the delight of all the ladies. I admire pluck. Never let your ardor lag, my boy. Patience and perseverence are said to accomplish wonders, so by diligently following those "incomparable directions" you may some day be President of the United States.

Write me another letter Augustus Claude. Your epistles do me so much good, for they always make my thoughts dwell on pleasant subjects; such for instance as Spring, the Country, fresh green grass, etc. Affectionately yours,

MILLIE DARE.

P. S. Miss Bella just came in looking perfectly radiant as I notice she always does after the visits of a particular gentleman. She wishes to send you some messages, but before I deliver them I must explain matters.

The gentleman who has been visiting my friend so frequently is none other than the returned wanderer, Lieut. Tagger. Everything between them has been amicably arranged, and as they have been true to each other so long, they have concluded to no longer delay making each other happy. So Lieut. Tagger expects to lead Miss Carlton to the hymeneal altar next Tuesday. As the parting and reconciliation occurred in my house, they wish to have their union take place here also, to which I delightedly agree.

Bella says I must ask you to come to her wedding, unless your size has become so prodigeous as to render even so short a journey an impossibility. She says I must tell you that her dear Lieut. (who by the way, no longer sports a moustache, and who has dropped the habit of quoting sentimental poetry) sends you his tender regards, and wishes to meet you, in order to thank you for your first letter, which providentially brought about their meeting.

Come and join in the festivities consequent on this occasion. I promise you as warm a welcome among the ladies here as you received at my cousin's "former home," which was entirely due to her sprightly letters to her friends there.

Be assured that you will still be carefully watched over by

Miscellaneous.

Remedy for Freckles, Sunburn and Mosquito Bites.

Freckles indicate an excess of iron in the blood, we are told, the sun acting on the particles in the skin as it does on indelible ink, bringing out the color. A very simple way of removing them is said to be as follows:

Take finely powdered nitre (saltpetre) and apply it to the freckles by the finger moistened with water and dipped in the powder. When perfectly done and judiciously repeated, it will remove them effectually and without trouble.

An old English prescription for the skin is to take half a pint of skim milk—so poor as to be blue—slice into it as much cucumber as it will cover, and let it stand an hour; then bathe the face and hands, washing them off with fair water when the cucumber extract is dry. The latter is said to stimulate the growth of hair where it is lacking, if well and frequently rubbed in. It would be worth while to apply it to high foreheads and bald crowns.

Rough skins, arising from exposure to the winds in riding, rowing, or yachting, trouble many ladies, who will be glad to know that an application of cold cream or glycerine at night, washed off with fine carbolic soap in the morning, will render them presentable at the breakfast-table, without looking like women who follow the hounds, blonzy and burned. The simplest way to obviate the bad effects of too free sun and wind, which are apt on occasion to revenge themselves for the neglect shown them by the fair sex too often, is to rub the face, throat, and arms well with cold cream or pure almond oil before going out. With this precaution, one may come home from a berry party or a sail without a trace of that ginger-bread effect too apt to follow these pleasures. Cold cream made from almond oil, with no lard or tallow about it, will answer every end proposed by the use of buttermilk, which young ladies can hardly prefer as a cosmetic on account of its odor.

A very delicate and effective preparation for rough skins, eruptive diseases, cuts, or ulcers, is found in a mixture of one ounce of glycerine, half an ounce of rosemary, and twenty drops of carbolic acid. In those dreaded irritations of the skin occurring in Summer, such as hives or prickly heat, this wash gives soothing relief. The carbolic acid at once neutralizes the poison of the blood which causes the sore, purifies and disinfects the wound or blotch, and heals it rapidly. A solution of this acid in glycerine made much stronger, say fifty drops to an ounce of glycerine, forms a protection from mosquitoes if applied at night. Though many people consider the remedy equal to the disease, constant use very soon reconciles one to the creosotic odor of the carbolic acid, especially if the pure crystalized form is used, which is far less overpowering in its fragrance than that commonly put up. Those who dislike it too much to use it at night will find the sting of the bites almost miraculously cured and the blotches removed by touching them with the mixture in the morning. Babies and children should be touched with it to relieve the pain they feel from insect bites, and do not know how to express except by worrying. Two or three drops of otter of roses in the preparation disguises the smell so as to render it tolerable to human beings, though not so to mosquitoes. —Harper's Bazarr.

Republicanism.

Progress in civilization and government.

The Union forever, one and inseparable.

The Constitution as it is, unless so changed as to enlarge the rights and privileges of the people.

A rigorous enforcement of the laws.

A rigidly honest and economical administration of public affairs.

Maintenance of the public credit,

Peace at home and abroad.

Merit—honesty and capability—the great requisite for promotion to office.

An equitable distribution of public favors and public burdens among all classes.

Encouragement to labor and protection for its products.

A faithful reward of genius, talent and industry in every vocation of life.

The education of the poorer classes of society that they may the more duly appreciate and enjoy an equitable share of the privileges and blessings of American citizenship.

Rather equivocal!—A sign pinned to a shirt in front of a River street store in Troy, says: "Would you be without a nice shirt for seventy-five cents?"

O. W. Holmes says it takes a very true man to be a fitting companion for a woman of genius, but not a very great one.

Spelling School.

Have you forgotten them? When from all the region about they were gathered in the log school-house with its huge fireplace yawning like the entrance of Avernus? How the sleigh-bells, big in the middle of the string and growing small by degrees and beautifully less towards the broad brass buckles, chimed in every direction long before eight—the gathering of the class! There came one to school, "the master." Give him a capital M, for he is entitled to it—Master, and all bundled into one huge red, double sleigh, strewn with an abundance of straw, and tucked up like a Christmas pie, with half a score of buffalo robes. There are a dozen cutters, each with a young man and a maiden, they two, no more. And there again a pair of jumpers, mounting a great outlandish looking bin heaped up, pressed down, and running over, Scripture measure, with a small collection of humanity picked up en route from a dozen homes, and all as merry as kittens in a basket of wool. And the bright eyes, and ripe red lips that one caught a glimpse of beneath those pink-lined, quilted hoods, and the silvery laugh that escaped the mufflers and fur tippets they wore then—who does not remember? Who can ever forget them?

The school-house destined to be the arena of the conflict has been garnished, boughs of evergreen adorn the smoked, stained and battered walls. The pellets of chewed paper have all been swept from the ceiling, and two pails of water brought from the spring, and set on a bench in the entry, with an immemorial tin cup—a wise provision indeed, for warm is that spelling room!

The big boys have fanned and replenished the fire, till the old chimney fairly jars with the roaring flames, and the sparks fly out of the top like a furnace, and as a flame of the battle.

The two "Masters" are there, and such a moving to and fro! Will they swarm?

The ferule comes down upon the desk with emphasis. What the roll of the drum is to the armies, the "rule" is to this whispering, laughing company.

The challengers are one side of the house, the challenged on the other. Back seat, middle seats, low front seats are all filled. Some of the fathers and grand fathers, who could no doubt, upon occasion occupy the bench of honor near the desk.

"Shoulder the crutch
And show how fields were won,"

Now the preliminaries: The reputed best speller on each side chooses. "Susan Brown." Out comes a round-eyed creature, blushing like a peony. Such a little thing.

Moses Jones. Out comes Moses, an awkward fellow, with a shock of red hair, shockingly harvested, surmounting his brow. The girls laugh at him, but what he don't know in the Elementary, isn't worth knowing.

Jane Murray. Out trips Jane, fluttering as a bride, and takes her place next to the caller. She's a pretty girl, but a sorry speller. Don't you hear the whispering round the house? "Why that's John's sweetheart." John is the leader, and a battle lost with Jane by his side, would be sweeter than a victory without her.

And so they go, "calling names," until five or six champions stand forth to do battle, and the contest is fairly begun.

Down goes one after another, as words of three syllables are followed by those of four and those again of similar pronunciation and divers signification, until Moses and Susan remain.

The spelling book has been exhausted, and still they stand. Dictionaries are turned over, memories are sacked for until, by-and-by, Moses comes down down like a tree, and Susan flutters there still, a little leaf aloft, that the forest and fall have forgotten,

"Words of lengthly sound,"

Pollysyllables follow, and by-and-by Susan hesitates just a breath or two, and twenty tongues are working their way through the labyrinth foletters in a twinkle. Little Susan sinks into the chink left for her on the crowded seat, and there is a lull in the battle. Then all get in solid phalanx by schools, and

BE ON GUARD.

The Ku Klux Democracy mean to carry the State if possible. They propose to do so by resorting to the most persistent and unmitigated lying. They began their game of slander and falsehood to carry the Municipal election of this City and they now boast that they have, through the aid of "bolters," stricken Republicanism a blow from which it will not recover. They are jubilant. They are preparing to continue the same game in this county—form coalitions and combinations into "bargains and sales" with the bolters and men of easy virtue, those willing to sell their principles for office. Let the Republicans be on their guard, every township of the county and county of the District these men will industriously circulate their whole stock of falsifications and perversions. They will unscrupulous and will not hesitate to resort to the grossest slanders. Be on guard; be on guard.

THE PLATFORMS OF THE CINCINNATI TICKET.

The following are some of the individual opinions concerning the Cincinnati ticket.

SENATOR WILSON'S OPINION.

Mr. Wilson says it cannot secure a real vote, or obtain one hundred thousand popular votes.

SENATOR LOGAN'S OPINION.

Mr. Logan states that it is a radical defeat of the free traders, who inaugurated the movement.

JUDGE DAVIS' OPINION.

Judge Davis has stated that the Convention proved itself a gigantic farce.

SENATOR TRUMBULL.

Mr. Trumbull appears somewhat nervous and depressed.

The nomination by the Democrats of Judge MERRIMAN for Governor is not a strong one. He will not poll his party vote. His record is a bad one. In the late war he showed the "white feather;" he was the fast friend of the now hated KIRK; he is still the friend of SWEPSON charged with robbing the State; he voluntarily defended the Ku Klux—all these things are known and remembered.

THE ANNUAL REUNION OF THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

On the 7th inst., the fourth annual reunion of the Army of the Potomac took place at Cleveland, Ohio. Gen. STEWART L. WOODFORD delivered the address. He recited the doings of the Army of the Potamoc from the battle of Bull Run to the surrender at Appomattox Court House, on Sunday, April 10, concluding as follows:

This hour is no time for politics. Mine not the lips, I trust, to introduce them here. But when I think of that heroic past, which your faces and presence so vividly recall, and then how trading, trickster politicians, forgetful of what bapism of blood sealed the new birth of the nation, seek to array races in needless hositlity, to excite the ignorance of the one and the brutal prejudice of the other, I would like to summon a guard, half from the rebel Army of Northern Virginia and half from the loyal Army of the Potomac, take such malcontents out, give them drum-head court-martial, immediate execution, and soldierly burial under the apple-tree at Appomattox. Let us have peace! No stealing by carpet-baggers. No midnight murders by cowardly Ku Klux. But camp-followers and sutlers to the rear, and true men to the front.

That Sabbeth day, in beautiful fidelity to the Christian brotherhood, which is stronger than section, holier than creed, your soldiers took from their tattered haversacks the scant rations left from your last three days supply, and shared them with your beaten and hungry foe. Fitting end to a strife between brothers. That Sabbath evening the bells rang out in jubilee, from cathedral chimes and in village spire, as the lightning whispered from city to city and hamlet to hamlet the glad tidings of victory and peace. The nation fell on bended knees and reverently thanked the God of Battles and of Love. Widowed hearts were sadly proud even in their agony of desolation. Old men and women ceased to mourn their loved ones slain, and reverently thanked God that they had been permitted to give their first-born, a free-will offering upon the altars of country and liberty. And loving womanhood, and prattling childhood, and age with its silver crown of honor waiting heaven, slept peacefully and well that Sabbath night, and dreamed of the brave boys—coming home.

Around us press these thronging memories. To-day and all this presence fade. Back comes that past. Into these aisles and by your sides shadowy forms are gathering. The comrade who wasted in the hospital; he who fell by the wayside; he who was with you as you went over the rifle-pit: and all are here—the living and the dead. We take the old touch of elbow and are one in the deathless bounds of an eternal union. By the memories so tender, so beyond all utterance, by the brave ones gone, by the defeats so patiently borne, by the victories so justly won and so mercifully used—we plead with thee, thou God of our fathers to keep the land thus saved. And may the peace, which fell that Sabbath morn so tenderly on land and flag, long remain unbroken.

LET US HAVE MANUFACTORIES.

The principal vocation of this country has been Agriculture. It must continue to be so for some time, and hence how to make it yield the best returns should be the constant study of our people. While all this is true, we hold that there are other employments well suited to many of our people which could be made helpful friends to agriculture, powerful patrons to our staple products, bountiful benefactors to our people, and magnetic influences to the worthy immigrant to cast his lot among us.

It has been said that no nation can obtain to any considerable eminence, whose prosperity depends upon any one employment; it would seem, therefore, to be the part of wisdom to diversify our industrial pursuits, and whilst the sturdy husbandman continues to gather from his broad acres the silken fleece of our great Southern staple, the swiftly moving spindle should twist it into thread, and the restless little shuttle construct it into those thousand beautiful fabrics which so wonderfully enhance its value.

The facilities offered for all this in this country are incalculable; the advantages of our mild and salubrious climate are unsurpassed; the labor suited to the work, and seeking employment, is abundant, and the profits that would result from investments in manufactures sufficient to warrant the experiment. Let us have them. And what would be the obvious beneficial results to the country following the erection of manufacturing establishments among us? A home market for our products, employment for many of our destitute poor, who would constitute a large portion of the operatives. Under the sheltering roof of the school house, and the church, would gather the children of ignorance and vice; habits of industry and economy would take the place of idleness and wastefulness; there would be more of sobriety and intelligence, social culture, comfort and happiness. Villages would spring up, and with them a demand for other mechanical employments, arts and artisans. It would bring more population and more wealth. We repeat, let us have them.

The Cincinnati movement is a revolution led by professed Republicans, designed to take matters out of the hands of the regular party organization, and to break up the great Republican body. There is no more justification for the breaking up a great party by a wanton and quarrelsome revolution, than there is for breaking up a civil government every time that aspiring, discontented, or theoretic men are displeased with the state of things.

In reading the proceedings of the Cincinnati Convention which the anti-GRANT folks have tried to dignify by calling it a great "uprising" of the people, we were reminded of Donnybrook Fair where every man rose for the purpose of knocking his neighbor down! The temporary Chairman and many of the active leaders in the movement have withdrawn from it in disgust.

Our nominee for Auditor of the State, was endorsed by the people of Fayetteville on Monday week by being elected Mayor of that City. Last year Fayetteville elected a Democratic Mayor.

In the municipal elections all over the State the Republicans have done well. The prospects of the August election are cheering.

VOORHEES ON THE SITUATION.

Hon. D. W. VOORHEES, one of the Western leaders of the Democratic party, has no idea of surrendering to the "Liberal Republicans." He sent the following telegram to his home paper at Terre Haute, Ind.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 5, 1872.

Editor of the Terre Haute Journal: The Democracy will meet as usual in National Convention, and through its authorized delegates nominate its candidates and declare its policy. Until then, no man has the right to commit the party as to its future action. Its organization and principles should be maintained at all hazards.

D. W. VOORHEES.

Ever and anon we meet with men super-eminently wise beyond their day and generation. They are continually looking for showers of heavenly larks, while all the time engaged themselves in larks of quite a different description. From all sections of the country these visionaries flocked to Cincinnati on the 1st of May. To them it was to be a political Mecca. Every Republican who possessed any sort of grievance nursed it kindly for presentation at the conclave of "Reformers" who assumed to monopolize whatever political virtue is still extant in the country. They met and compared their un-reasons together. The country knows the result.

AUGUST BELMONT, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, repudiates the Cincinnati mass-meeting and its candidates. He recognizes that its leaders have no strength outside the Republican party, and that in any combination movement they would repel more Democratic votes than they would win of Republican votes. He advises a regular nomination. The Democracy must do this or abandon its organization.

Not two weeks before the Cincinnati Convention HORACE GREELEY published far and wide the assurance that should the Democrats make a nomination for President he would support that Republican candidate who seemed to have the best chance of success. That there will be a straight Democratic ticket we believe. Will Mr. GREELEY keep his word?

We see some of our Democratic exchanges state that Hon. JOHN POOL voted against Gen. RANSOM taking his seat. This is untrue. The legality of Gen. ABBOTT's claim having been decided in the negative the vote on the admission of RANSOM was unanimous.

There have now been two National Conventions held—the Labor Reformers and the Liberal Republicans. There are still three more to come off; the Republican, the Democratic and the Reunion and Reform Convention. Are we to have five Presidential tickets in the field?

It is well known that in 1868, the present Democratic candidate for Governor, Judge MERRIMAN was a Democratic candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court. His own county, Buncombe, where he was born and raised and where he was best known, gave a large majority against him.

Some of the newspapers which support the Cincinnati nomination lay great stress upon the fact that B. GRATZ BROWN was one of the fathers of the Republican party in Missouri. Very true. So was FRANK BLAIR. Both of them have abandoned their principles.

After a careful reading of the utterances of several hundred journals, from all sections of the Union, we are impressed with one fact—that GREELEY, instead of dividing the Republican party, has rent the Democracy in twain.

GRANT used to set type, COLFAX is an old newspaper man, while GREELEY and BROWN are experienced printers. Four typos running for the highest offices in the people's gift ought to make a good impression.

The Democratic party needs to have its eyes open.—Southern Paper.

Not at all. It can be buried just as well with its eyes shut.

THREE YEARS IN A MAN TRAP. By the author of "Ten Nights in a Bar Room." Philadelphia; J. M. STODDARD & Co., 1872.

This is a Temperance Story from the pen of T. S. ARTHUR, a man whose writings have done more for the cause of morality and virtue than any living author. In this volume he grapples with the monster Intemperance in a new field and with enemies thoroughly disciplined and organized. From the quiet country village in which the incidents delineated in his "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" were laid he now turns to a great city, with its six or seven thousand Saloons and Dram Shops and uncovers the dreadly ulcer that is eating steadily down towards the vitals of the people.

From the first page to the last of this book the reader finds himself drawn on and on to a series of rapidly recurring pictures, some of them so intense and vivid, yet so true to real life, that he will almost hold his breath while he follows the author from canvas to canvas through the book.

This volume cannot fail to make a profound impression. Its scenes, its facts, above all, its deep pervading earnestness, will powerfully impress every one, and awaken the people to a new sense of their duty and danger.

A GOOD OMEN.—The successful ascension of the large and magnificent balloon, the "Hon. A. S. Merrimon," last evening is a good omen for the rising of our party in August next.—Daily News.

Inasmuch as the balloon ascended about forty-feet and bursted, we agree with our neighbor.—Era.

It was very unkind of a cotemporary to say that if Mr. Greeley were nominated he would be able to tell next fall what he knows about "a big beet."

Perquimans County Republican Convention.

Pursuant to a call of the County Executive Committee, the Republicans of Perquimans County met in Convention at the Court House, in Hertford on the 11th day of May 1872.

The meeting was called to order by K. R. Pendleton, of the Executive Committee of the County; and on motion Jeptha White was appointed President. Jas. W. Mullen and Wm. E. Ferebee Vice Presidents. Josiah Nicholson and Wm. J. Porter Secretaries.

The Chairman explained the object of the meeting to be for the purpose of appointing delegates to represent the County of Perquimans in the first Congressional District Convention to be held at Plymouth May 23rd and also in the first Senatorial District Convention to be held at Eliz. City, May 28th 1872; to nominate a candidate to represent the County in the House of Commons of the next General Assembly, and also make nominations for the several County offices etc.

On motion the following gentlemen were appointed by the chair as a Committee on resolutions viz: Willis Bagley, Primas Nixon, K. R. Pendleton, Elijah Peele and J. R. Hare, who retired for that purpose.

On motion the Chairman appointed as a nominating Committee the following viz: J. R. Hare, J. Morris, Jesse Armstrong, Elijah Peele, John Randolph, K. R. Pendleton, E. C. Albertson, Simon White, Wm. J. Porter, Primas Nixon, and Steaven Norcom, who were instructed to withdraw, confer together and report to the meeting.

6*th*, We approve the official conduct of all of our public servants, who have remained true to Republican principles, and who have faithfully performed the duties of their office.

7*th*, That principles are of more value, than individuals, and that harmony must prevail in the approaching Campaign.

8*th*, That this Convention will make no special recommendation for any office, but will leave all our delegates both to the Congressional and Senatorial Conventions free to act as they shall, at the time of assembling believe to be for the best interests of our people.

We, your Coinmittee, to bring forward to this meeting the names of individuals to be put in nomination for the respective offices of the County, and as our Representative in the next General Assembly have conferred together and agreed to report the following as nominees for the respective positions viz., Henry White, for Sheriff, Willis H. Bagley, for Coroner, Josiah Nicholson for Treasurer, U. W. Speight for Register of Deeds, Thomas E. Winston for Surveyor, Jeptha White, Edward C. Albertson, Alfred Newby, Elijah Peele and Edward Felton, for Commissioners; and J. Robert Darden as our Representative in the Legislature.

That John H. Cox, K. R. Pendleton, Josiah Nicholson, Primas Nixon, and Elijah Peele should be appointed as the Executive Committee for this County, all of which we submit.

Willis Bagley then responded to the call to address the meeting, and in a forcible strain of eloquence he riveted the attention of the assembled multitude and merited the applause and approval manifested.

L. W. Boone being present favored the meeting with an approving address.

J. R. Darden accepted the nomination tendered him in a few fitting remarks.

Voted that the proceedings of this meeting be sent to the Eliz. City CAROLINIAN and to the Carolina Era, signed by the President and Secretaries with the request to publish the same.

Thus ended a most euthusiastic and harmonious meeting of the Republicans of Perquimans County.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

The nomination of Horace Greely has caused unexpected trouble to the Democrats. The leaders merely intended to give the ticket all the moral support within their power and pat it on the shoulder until the meeting of the Democratic nominating Convention in July next, when they expected every member of the party to step into line: but to the surprise of all, a number of Democratic papers and leaders have committed themselves fully to the Greeley movement; and it looks as though Greeley would rend in twain the Democratic, instead of the Republican party. Thus far there are twice as many Democratic papers supporting Greeley in earnest as Republican papers which caused very great demoralization within the ranks of the Democracy. Should the Democratic Convention endorse Greeley it is evident that the organization is utterly lost and that a great many voters will drift into the Grant camp. The Republican organization on the other hand remains intact, and the Democrats have gained no new occasion of strength.

Particularly unpopular is Greeley among the Germans for in the German mind he is identified with all that is repressive in the Sunday law and liquor legislation. I have never witnessed in a twenty years political experience so sudden a revulsion as that of the German press, for with the exception of the Westliche Post, the Greeley ticket has scarcely an advocate.

The political situation is very favorable, and all foolish stories about Grant's withdrawal or that the Convention at Philadelphia will throw him overboard, are manufactured out of whole cloth to supply the place of more legitimate news.

THE ANNUAL EXODUS TO EUROPE.

A large number of Americans propose to travel in Europe this season. It is found that the expenses of an European trip, although much greater than is generally supposed, are not very much in excess of the cost of a season at Newport or Saratoga. A friend who made the trip last year and who has been in Europe several times recommends that those who intend to touch at the continent, first take the Hamburg line of steamers. He represents, what we know to be a fact, that the steamers of this line makes faster time than the Cunarders—the distance between New York and Hamburg being nearly a thousand miles greater than between New York and Liverpool, and yet the trips are frequently made within ten or eleven days.

The table is most superb and the attendance very superior; so that persons who may be afflicted with sea sickness will have the utmost care and attention, which is so grateful to those suffering from this painful illness. The staterooms are moreover the largest and most convenient that have yet been constructed, comprising every convenience which experience has suggested.

I make these statements entirely disinterestedly and for the sole purpose of aiding those who intend to travel upon the continent in making their choice of routes. As all the berths are generally engaged during May and June, some weeks in advance, no time should be lost by those who intend to cross the Atlantic.

ABOUT ADJOURNMENT.

Although Congress has of late been at work with more than usual industry, and buncombe speeches have been avoided, so much legislative work is still in a chaotic and unfiinished state that it is scarcely possible that an adjournment can be had, without leaving very important business unfinished before the 15th of June next, though some are of the opinion that by the aid of night sessions the business may be coscluded by the end of the present month.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The new postal treaty with Switzerland was signed on Tuesday and dispatched for an exchange of signatures.

The House appopriation Committee yesterday agreed to report an item of $102,000 to reimburse the District of Columbia for improvements in front of property belonging to the United States. This is simply just to the District.

It is stated that the truck farmers and gardeners in their vicinity have this season sent no less than 18000 barrels of Kale to New York.

A sensation was caused at the White House yesterday afternoon by the appearances of Mosby, who called in company with Senator Lewis, of Virginia, to pay his respects to the President. They were admitted in a few minutes after sending in their cards, and remained for some time.

Senator Trumbull's temper seems to have been soured by disappointment at Cincinnati. He sees a raw head and bloody bones in every movement of administration Senators. It is doubtful whether he speaks for Greeley or for Buncombe.

"Zeta," special Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, shows great anxiety that the Democracy shall unite with the Cincinnati nominations. He also represents the N. Y. World here.

The House amnesty bill is likely to pass the Senate, and I hope it will pass, as it accords with the recommendation of the President's annual message, and is a wise measure at this time. Senator Boreman of W. Va., has charge of it in the Senate.

The Democrats have resolved to hold their national convention at Balt. Md., on July 9th.

On motion it was resolved that J. W. Poole be made an honorary member of the "Farmer Club" in Elizabeth City and that he be requested to represent the Club in the Agricultural Congress to be held in St. Louis on the 27th, of this month.

The Club adjourned to meet at 3½ o'clock next Saturday evening.

THIS WEEK'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

Call attention to the following new advertisement in this issue.

Dr. J. N. Butt's Soda Water.
U. S. Internal Revenue, Notice.
Notice.

Local and Personal.

☞ Our Truckers are beginning to ship Strawberries and Peas.

☞ The "daily evening male" is what an uptown girl calls her beau.

☞ The favor of our Edenton correspondent will appear next week.

☞ The Baptist Association will open its sessions at this place on Tuesday next.

☞ We return our thanks to Capt WATERS and several other friends for nice messes of garden peas.

☞ Mr SMITH has a large force of hands on the new Hotel and the walls are going up rapidly.

☞ B. F. BAKER has left a Black Spanish hen's egg at our office—the largest hen's egg we ever saw.

☞ Our friend Col. JOHN S. BURGESS sends us a Rye stock measuring six feet. The Colonel is ahead so far as heard from.

☞ A cotemporary returns his thanks for a copy of a Bank Note Detecter. He now modestly asks for some Bank notes upon which to test its accuracy.

☞ Republicans of Pasquotank! remember the County Convention that convenes at the Court House at 3 o'clock P. M., on Saturday next. Let there be a full attendance.

☞ We overheard a shrewed business man observe the other day that while he didn't recommend advertising as the best way to get a wife he knows it is the best way to get trade.

☞ The Congressional Conference meets at Plymouth on Thursday next. The NORTH CAROLINIAN will support the regular nominee. The Democrats hold their Convention on the same day at Edenton.

☞ By notice it will be seen that there will be a meeting of the Stockholders of the "Albemarle Agricultural Society" held in the Court House at this place on the 8th of June. The object is to elect officers, etc.

☞ We learn that on the 10th inst., the boiler of the freight Steamer "Rotary" exploded off Old Point, in Currituck Sounii, and that the Chief Engineer WILLIAM WALKER, his wife and child and sister in law were killed.

☞ One of our Raleigh exchanges says:

In Currituck county, when a young man take his leave at a sociable, he kisses the girls all round. This is the original omnibus.

Our "Devil" thinks very seriously of emigrating to that county.

☞ The Democracy of this city excuse their course at the recent municipal election on the ground that they were simply acting in pursuance of the advice of JEFF DAVIS, made in his last public speech, to "divide the Republican party and then conquer."

☞ A surgical operation—the amputation of the right arm—was performed on an old gentleman named BENJ. MEDES, of this county, one day last week. He has long been afflicted with a cancer. The operation was performed by Dr. LUMSDEN, assisted by Drs, MORGAN and SAUNDERS.

☞ The meeting of the Farmers' Club on Saturday was an interesting one. The fence question was discussed, participated in by President KENNEDY, Dr UNDERWOOD, Mr. HOLLOWELL, Dr. KREBS and others. These meetings ought to be more largely attended by our farmers.

☞ Thos. J. MURDEN has a sixty acre field of wheat worth going to see. It is all out in head, stands evenly on the ground and equals any we ever saw in the best wheat growing sections of Pennsylvania. He is a good farmer and is demonstrating that by preparing the ground properly, procuring good clean seed and sowing it in good season, as good crops of wheat can be raised here as anywhere. Unfortunately there was not more than one third the usual amount of wheat sown last fall.

☞ By proceedings of their County Convention, printed in annother colmn, it will be seen that the Republicans of Perquimans are united and go for principles instead of men. This is our platform exactly—a platform true Republicans everywhere can stand upon. We see they did not instruct their Congressional or Senatorial delegates, leaving them free to act for the best interests of the party. A good, strong County ticket was nominated. It will be triumphantly elected.

☞ The Republicans of Salem and Nixonton townships held meetings on Saturday. They were well attended and the best of feeling prevailed. They appointed their township Executive Committees and gave expression as to their first choice for several of the county offices. Their good words for the NORTH CAROLINIAN is appreciated. We try to do our duty, giving forth our best efforts to promote the best interests of the party, and it is gratifying to know that our course is endorsed by the earnest and true Republicans of the country.

☞ How to save the Corporation over Three Hundred Dollars—accept the responsible offers made to serve as Treasurer gratuitously, and to perform the duties of Constable for $200 a year.

☞ The faction of Bolters boast of their independence by acting and forming coalitions with their old opponents. But they are wrong. That man is most independent who is at once loyal to his country, true to his party and faithful to his friends.

☞ We are asked to describe the new Spring feminine head gear. Feeling ourselves unequal to the task, we asked a friend, who had been taking observations, to do it for us. Here it is:

"The new Spring bonnets are very becoming. They are adroit combinations of the cottage and gypsey styles, with nice French roofs."

☞ A Lecture was delivered in the African Methodist Church at this place on Thursday evening by Mrs. F. E. W. HARPER (colored) of Philadelphia. Her subject was "The Work before us." The Lecture was of a high order of talent and was well delivered. Mrs. HARPER is a lady of education and culture. She will lecture at the same place this evening.

☞ How many men do we meet who show evidence that they have missed their vocations. They go through life with their milk of human kindness sourced to gall and wormwood, and their usefulness is marred if not ruined. Each one of our readers will have in his or her mind's eye one or more illustrations of our meaning.

☞ A humorous friend from the country the other day declared that the conduct of the "bolting clique" reminded him of a certain conclave he once heard of, which, after a long deliberation, resolved as follows: 1st. That the earth belongeth to the Saints. 2nd. That we are the Saints. Just so with the clique and the offices. Our friend was inclined to the belief that the people would have a word to say about it.

☞ The Spring session of our Superior Court opened on Monday, Hon, J. W. ALBERTSON on the Bench. His charge to the Grand Jury was able, clear, and especially pertinent to the times. He is giving excellent satisfaction as a Judge. The new Solicitor, WILLIS BAGLEY, Esq., is also favorably impressing our people. He performs the duties of his office efficiently and promptly. The usual amount of business is being transacted.

☞ GEO. W. COBB who has just been elected Mayor by Democratic votes has published a Card in which appears the following remarkable statement:

"The NORTH CAROLINIAN, through its editor and correspondents, has persistently and wilfully misrepresented me in its columns, while I have been absolutely refused the privilege of replying through the same channel."

Now, to put it mildly, this is simply not true. Mr. COBB has never asked us to publish a single line for him. His Democratic adviser—and for advice and support he relies on Democrats—did prepare several articles for him and we cheerfully inserted them in our paper. We distinctly and repeatedly stated to his friends that he or they should at all times have the privilege of replying to any animadversions made on him or them in the NORTH CAROLINIAN. We never attack a man nor do we allow correspondents to do so without giving the party a chance of being heard. We did refuse to publish the proceedings of the "Bolters" meeting, and we gave as our reason for doing so that they contained charges which were not true and that the purpose was to disorganize and disrupt the Republican party, to aid which the NORTH CAROLINIAN could not be used. The other mis-statements contained in the Card have been replied to in a Card by Mr. GRANDY. To the froth and foam sputtered forth in bar-rooms, or on the streets, we pay no attention, but when a man wrongfully accuses us over his own signature, we are in the habit of stepping out of our way to set him right.

Business Locals.

A popular place of resort is at Fulmers on Water Street. Ice Cream, —strawberry—vanilla—lemon or pine apple—always on hand.

The place to buy Dry Goods and Notions is at Fowlers on Water Street.

Lowenburg & Jacobs, of Norfolk are thankful to their North Carolina friends for their liberal patronage. Their motto is "quick sales and small profits."

Of all mean things in the world the meanest thing yet is for a young man to offer to escort a lady to Church and not offer to go to Dr. Butt's and treat her to a glass of his Ice Cold Soda Water. We all know that ladies are fond of it.

The City of Madras and the coast was visited on the 1st of May by a terrific cyclone which caused a serious loss of life. A number of vessels at anchor in the roadstead which are unable to put to sea, owing to the sudden approach of the cyclone, were wrecked, and most of their crews perished. The immense pier leading far out into the water was breached, and the city and suburbs were greatly damaged. Madras has no harbor and the coast is greatly exposed.

HOW WE USED TO BE PHYSICKED.—Who does not remember the time when spring purgation was considered indispensable to summer health? No matter for wry faces, the inevitable salts and senna, rhubarb, or calomel and jalap, must be administered. These "spring medicines," the youngsters were told were to keep them hale and hearty during the summer. We all know now that this was a falacy; that new vigor, not depletion, is what is required at the commencement of the summer solstice. As a preparation for the enervating effects of oppressive summer weather, a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is highly expedient. This famous vegetable preparation has three prominent properties. It renovates, purifies, and regulates all the functions of the body. It is composed exclusively of pure vegetable productions, viz: the essential principle of Monongahela Rye, and the most efficacious tonic and alterative roots, barks, and gums known to medical botanists. Hence, it is an absolutely safe medicine, and no tincture of the Pharmacopœia can compare with it either comprehensive results. Happily for mankind, the theory that it was necessary to prostrate a patient in order to cure him, is forever exploded, and the true philosophical doctrine, that vigor is the great antagonist of disease, has taken its place Hostetter's Bitters is an invigorant, and hence it is the proper medicine for the feeble at this most trying season of the year.

Be sure that you obtain the genuine article, as there are innumerable vile imitations in the market. Look to the ornamental stamp, the engraved label, and the name blown into the glass. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is sold in Bottles only.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

FATHERS AND MOTHERS.—If you occupy these relations now, or are about to do so, study well your constitution. If you have acquired or inherited Scrofula or any disease which may be transmitted to your offspring it is your solemn duty to eradicate it. Thousands of children are now suffering from the effects of poisonous disease transmitted to them from their parents. The thought is terrible. Your children's future much sadness and solicitude and your dear little ones much pain and unhappiness by the timely use of Dr. Tutt's Sar-saparilla and Queen's Delight. It will surely eradicate the taint from your system, or if it has already been entailed upon your child, give it at once, this valuable preparation and its system will be renovated and restored to soundness.

MONTGOMERY CO., N. C., Sept. 11, 1869.

Dr. Wm. H. Tutt:

SIR—Pen cannot the heartfelt thanks of a mother who was well nigh driven to despair by the sad condition of an only child. My little boy has been afflicted with Scrofula ever since his birth, and after trying every remedy that was recommended, and several physicians had pronounced him past all hope, I accidently heard of your Sarsaparilla and Queen's Delight. It was so highly recommended that I concluded to try it, but I must confess with very little faith. He has taken nine of the bottles you sent me, and I am happy in being able to say that he is almost well: and I believe by the time he takes the dozen he will be perfectly restored to health. He has gained flesh, has a fine appetite, and now walks two miles to chool. I shall always remember you with gratitude. ANN MURRAY.

Dr. Tutt's Hair Dye is used in Europe & America.

A NEW BEAUTIFYING AGENT.—All Dentifrices had their drawbacks, until the Salubrious Bark of the Soap Tree was brought from the Chilian Valleys to perfect the fragrant Sozodont, the most delightful article for the teeth that a brush was ever dipped into.

"CHILDREN'S LIVES SAVED FOR 50 CENTS."—Every case of Croup can be cured when first taken, by Dr. Tobias' Venitian Liniment, warranted for 24 years and never a bottle returned. It also cures Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Colic, Sore Throat, Cuts, Burns and External Pains. Sold by the Druggists. Depot, 10 Park Place, New York.

VENUS herself would not have been beautiful if her complexion had been bad. If beauty is skin deep, it is necessary to secure and retain that part of it; and ladies instead of resorting to paints and powders, should remember that an impure, blotchy, or sallow skin is the proof of feeble digestion, torpid liver, or vitiated blood, for all which DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS is a safe, sure, and effectual remedy.

BURNETT'S COCOAINE.—No oils, neither pomades or alcoholic washes—foreign or domestic—can compare with Cocoaine as a HAIR DRESSING. It anchors the hair firmly in the scalp—gives it new life and lustre—and renders it the "crowning glory" of both sexes, old and young.

PRATT'S ASTRAL OIL—Safest and best illuminating Oil ever made. Does not take fire or explode, if the lamp is upset or broken. Over 150,000 families continues to use it, and no accidents of any description have occured from it. Oil House of Charles Pratt, established 1770, New York.

BEAUTIFUL WHITE, soft smooth, and clear skin is produced by using G. W. Laird's "Bloom of Youth." It removes tan, freckles, sunburns, and all other discolorations from the skin, leavine the complexion brilliant and beautiful. Sold at all druggists. This preparation is entirely free from any material detriment to health.

JUST THE REMEDY NEEDED.—Thanks to Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, we have been relieved from sleepless nights of painful watching with poor, suffering teething children.

FOR DYSPEPSIA. Indigestion, depression of spirits and general debility in their various forms; also as a preventive against Fever and Ague, and other intermittent fevers. The Ferro-Phosphorated Elixir of Calisaya made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York, and sold by all Druggists, is the best tonic, and as a tonic for patients recovering from fever or other sickness, it has no equal.

RISLEY'S GENUINE GOLDEN BALL COLOGN WATER according to the original formula of Prevost, Paris, so long and favorably known to the customers of Havilland, Harral and Risley and their branches, for its fine permanent fragrance is now made by H. W. Risley and the trade supplied by his successors, Morgan & Risley, Wholesale Druggists, New York.

THURSTON'S IVORY PEARL TOOTH POWDER.—The best article known for cleansing and preserving the teeth and gums. Sold by all Druggists. Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle. F. C. Wells & Co., New York.

CARBOLIC SALVE, recimanended by the leading Physicians and the President of the New York Board of Health, as the most wonderful Healing compound ever known. Gives instant relief to burns, cures all kinds of sores, cuts and wounds; and a most invaluable salve for all purposes. Sold everywhere at 25 cents. John F. Henry, sole Proprietor, 8 College Place, New York.

CHRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE is the safest and best. It corrects the bad effects of inferior dyes, while the black or brown tints it produces are identical to nature. Factory 68 Maiden Lane, New York.

SYAPNIA is Opium purified of its sickening and poisonous properties, discovered by Dr. Bigelow, Professor of Botany, Detroit Medical College. A most perfect anodyne and soothing opiata. John Farr, Chemist, New York.

CELEBRATED
Horse and Cattle Powders.

This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly re-invigorate broken down and low-spirited horses, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines.

It is a sure preventive of all diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG FEVER, GLANDERS, YELLOW WATER, HEAVES, COUGHS, DISTEMPER, FEVERS, FOUNDER, LOSS OF APPETITE AND VITAL ENERGY, &c. Its use improves the wind, increases the appetite—gives a smooth and glossy skin—and transforms the miserable skeleton into a fine-looking and spirited horse.

To keepers of Cows this preparation is invaluable. It is a sure preventive against Rinderpest, Hollow Horn, etc. It has been proven by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk and cream twenty per cent. and make the butter firm and sweet. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much faster.

In all diseases of Swine, such as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs, Liver, &c., this article acts as a specific. By putting from one-half a paper to a paper in a barrel of swill the above diseases will be eradicated or entirely prevented. If given in time, a certain preventive and cure for the Hog Cholera.

AGRICULTURAL, HORTICULTURAL AND DOMESTIC MATTERS.

Soiling Stock.

I am, Mr. Editor, one of those who believe that our farms are not cultivated enough. There is my neighbor A., yonder, who has 50 of his 125 acres in pasture. If I ask him what he will take for his farm he will be likely to tell me $75 or $100 per acre. If I wanted to buy that ten on of his farm in pastures, he would me about $50 per acre for it; and there is at least half of it that does pay him annually seven per cent. interest on $25 per acre. It is good land enough, but it grows little or nothing in the shape of forage for his cows and sheep. Why, Sir, I can select ten acres of it, which, if fenced off from a piece of bottom land he has in the same field, would not keep ten sheep alive through the summer. And yet that land will pay 20 per cent. interest on $100 per acre, in its location, if properly managed.

Yes, Sir, soiling cattle will do it. Let that land be plowed, manured, sowed in clover, and the clover cut and fed direct to the stock, and it will keep five times the amount of stock that it does now, and keep the animals better—yield the farmer more profit from each animal. Labor is the bother," said my friend Jones, the other day. So it is; but it is not a bother that is insurmountable, if a man has the good sense to know how to treat and pay his laborers. Where lands are high and valuable soiling has got to be adopted—every inch of land must be cultivated. My friend could profitably sell half of his land at $50 per acre, till the other half as it should be, keep more stock on it, and derive more profit therefrom than he does now from the whole. And half of the farm would, in five years, be worth more money, absolutely, than the whole is now.

Do you say this is dogmatic assertion, unwarranted by facts? I say no. I have seen it tried. The agricultural papers have furnished facts proving it; there are men in New England and New York getting rich at farming, who never made a dollar at the business until they began to cultivate every inch of ground they own, and to carry a heavy stock of cattle, sheep and swine upon it by soiling, to feed the manure with which to enrich their lands. Their farms have grown better and their bank deposits larger ever since. I could induce some of them to give me and figures (to which I have not now) through your columns, what I have here asserted. I will do so.—Rural New Yorker.

Subjects for Discussion.

The Waltham Mass Farmers' Club, has published the following topics for discussion during the present month. The idea is excellent and should be generally imitated:

1. The result of farming in 1871, and what has been learned that will be beneficial in future.
2. The importation of foreign breeds of horses, and other stock: has been a benefit to the community?
3. Railroads and trade unions; their influence on the business of the community.
4. The combination of the farming interests: is a benefit to their general prosperity?
5. Wood and forest trees; their advantages or disadvantages to the farm and community.
6. Farmers and farmers; what are the indigenous good farming?
7. Farmers and poultry; best breeds of each, best method of keeping and feeding, the profit and loss.
8. Farmers and vegetables; proper time to plant, and the best way of preserving them.
9. Farmers and cows; feeding and management to health and the production of milk.
10. Farmers and sheep, feeding, and training of horses for speed, road, and farm work.

Handling Hogs.

A practical breeder gives the following advice, which, in the main, we think is sound: those whose herd is not too large and who are engaged in mixed farming: To handle hogs to the best advantage, a pasture is needed of mixed clover, blue grass and timothy, best if there is no running water, but ponds in the lot. Hogs do well where there are no branches or ponds to wallow in. In place of these have good well water pumped for them, and have troughs made, and nailed across, eight inches apart, to keep them from lying down in the water, and these hogs be put on floors, to keep them from digging up wallowing places. If any feed be given it should be given in swill barrels for twelve hours after feeding—no longer—and fed to them to drink.—Germantown Telegraph.

How to Use a Grindstone.

E. MITCHELL, PHILADELPHIA.

Don't waste the stone by running it dry, but if so, don,t allow it to stand in water when not in use, as this will soften a soft place.

Set the stone by dropping water on it from a pot suspended above the stone, and stop off the water when not in use.

Don't allow the stone to get out of true, but keep it perfectly round by the use of a peice of gas-pipe, or a piece of hoop.

Clean off all greasy tools before grinding, as grease or oil destroys the stone.

Observe—when you get a stone to suit your purpose, send a sample of it to the dealer to select by; a half dozen is enough, and can be sent cheaply by mail.

The bark of your trees is infested with eggs insects, you can get rid of them by taking a half pound of tobacco, one pound of sulphur, quarter peck of ashes, or those ingredients well together with four gallons of water. Leave the mixture and syringe the trees with the liquid.

Wheat delights in a rich, loamy soil, neither moist, and a cool, equable climate. For these reasons, the crop is liable to prove a failure when planted late, and is subject it to the summer drought before the haulms are sufficiently abundant to shade the ground.

"A cow should fatten one pig," is an old and a good one; that is, the dairy product of a good cow should be in skim milk and whey enough to feed one pig, with the cream and cheese are extra.

It is said that one of the most powerful remedies for botts in horses is a strong decoction of sage tea, made very sweet. It destroys the botts instantly.

Cows and sheep should not be pastured together. Horses and sheep for a more profitable partnership, as their grazing habits are similar.

Surface manuring and cultivation are necessary for grain, and in particular, for fruit—the former manure and deep culture, for vegetables.

The cow is one of the best servants of man: feed her generously and she will return unto you generously the rich milk and the golden butter.

OF VALUABLE

NORTH CAROLINA LANDS,

FOR SALE BY

GEORGE D. POOL.

Real Estate Agent,

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C.

In presenting my list of lands and other properties for sale, I would say that no section of the United States offers such inducements for capitalists and emigrants, as this section of North Carolina. In longevity and healthfulness, it will compare favorably with any where; and in easy and cheap transportation of products to market, in pleasantness of climate, in the sociability of the people, in great fertility and durability of soil, no section can equal it.

A railroad will soon be built from Weldon, putting this place in direct communication by Rail, with the whole United States. This, together with our great fishing, farming and manufacturing interests, and certain early completion of already projected works of improvement for putting in nearer, cheaper and easier communication with the Ocean, will render this one of the most important commercial, and manufacturing points on the Southern country.

A Steam Saw and Grist Mill in the town of Nixonton 8 miles from E. City. This Mill has a fine wharf and store attached on deep navigable water, the engine is 40 horse power, and all in good order. It is one of the finest locations to be found any where for custom work, and for getting good saw logs easily and cheaply. Price $4,000 cash.

Adjoining the mill property is 40 acres of fine land on the River, with three houses, all for $1200. Near the same is a good two story dwelling and 13 acres of land for $2,000, and a good one story dwelling, with one acre of land for $300.

Also two fine farms in Pasquotauk county, 10 miles from E. City, within half mile of church, school house and post office. One tract contains about 400 acres, with fair buildings and mostly cleared, and the other contains 300 acres, with good two story dwelling, large barn, and other outhouses, both are offered at $20 per acre, one third cash, balance in one and two years.

Also one other tract in Pasquotank county, containing 116 acres, within one mile of the town with fine buildings, mostly cleared and in cultivation. Price $25 per acre, one half cash, balance in 12 months.

A valuable site for a hotel at Nag's Head, 40 miles from Elizabeth City, and 50 miles from Edenton. This is situated immediately on the Ocean, and is a famous Summer resort for invalids, and those seeking health, comfort, and amusements during the summer months. It is in direct communication by steamboats and railroad with all parts of North Carolina, Virginia, and the North; and is equal in natural advantages to Newport, or Cape May. Visitors flock to this famous summer resort by hundreds and thousands, and a large amount of money can be made by a hotel. A charter has been obtained from the Legislature of N. C., for a joint stock company to build the hotel. There is now an old hotel on the spot, which could be cheaply repaired and bought for $3,000. This hotel, though imperfectly kept, cleared the proprietor last season, over $3,000. For a man or a company, having some capital, this is one of the finest chances to make money at hotel keeping to be found anywhere. The early attention of the public is invited to this property.

A fine steam saw and grist mill at Hertford, the county seat of Perquimans County, N. C., 18 miles from Elizabeth City. This mill has a fifty horse power engine, now in good running, two pairs of best French burr stones, and two upright saws. The house has a brick basement, and the building is large and in good order. There is one and a half acres of land belonging to this property, and a good two story dwelling, and other out-houses. The section of country adjacent abounds in the finest yellow pine, cypress, ash, poplar, and other valuable timber. This property originally cost $15,000, and is now offered at forced sale for the low price of $3,500, $7,00, cash, and the balance in six equal instalments, six months apart each with interest.

A fine farm and fishery in same county. The farm contains 400 acres of the finest land, lies immediately on Albemarle Sound where the water is 12 miles wide, and 18 to 20 feet deep, has got buildings, and fine neighborhood. The fishery is on the farm and goes with it. It has a new seine 2,500 yards long, and all the necessary boats, buildings, &c., (which cost over $15,000 two years ago.) The fishery alone, of a good season, will make from 5 to $10,000 profit to the owner. This property is offered at forced sale for the low price of $20,000, $7,000 cash, balance on easy times.

A store at South Mills, in Camden county, 20 miles from E. City, and 20 miles from Norfolk, lying on the canal where steamers pass daily. A fine chance for merchandize. Store is large with dwelling above containing six rooms, is in first rate order, has office, kitchen, dairy, and other necessary outhouses. Goods to the amt. of $50,000 per annum can be sold here, and at large profits. A splended stand for a country retail store. Price $2,500—one third cash, balance in one and two years.

A valuable tract of land in Camden county, at South Mills, on the Dismal Swamp Canal, lying on the canal for two miles, containing over 900 acres of land—two-thirds cleared, and in a fine state of cultivation, with good buildings, &c.; balance in valuable timber. Price $12,000, one-third cash, balance in one and two years, interest from January, 1871. This is a valuable farm for corn, wheat, and vegetables, and being midway between Elizabeth City and Norfolk, and located where steamers pass by the door daily, is a desirable and cheap property.

A fine farm of 600 acres within six miles of E. City, one mile from navigable water, and the best cotton farm in the State. It is also well adapted to raising corn and wheat. This farm has a splended two-story dwelling upon it, large barn, 40 by 60 feet, a large number of outhouses, by splended trees and shrubbery, is in a strong Union neighborhood, and altogether the most desirable place in the county. A little over one-half of this land is cleared, and the balance is covered with the finest yellow pine, poplar, ash and other timber. Price $30 per acre—one-third cash, balance in one and two years with interest. Title reserved.

Sixteen houses and lots in Elizabeth City, with good dwellings, out-houses, &c. Prices and terms reasonable.

A valuable farm in Perquimans county, N. C. near navigable water. Has a fine dwelling-house with ten rooms, in splended order, with splended barns and stables—all in first rate order. The farm is very productive in corn, oats, wheat, cotton and clover. It is one of the finest farms in the State and is now in good cultivation, contains 585 acres of land, about three-fourths cleared and under cultivation. Price $10,000, one-third cash January 1, next balance in two equal annual instalments with interest at the rate of six per cent.

A farm of 370 acres 8 miles from town by water, and 12 miles by land, is offered for sale for $10,000 in easy payments. This tract of land lies immediately on the River which is 4 miles wide and washes the farm its whole length on one side, and a branch of the River one mile wide, binds it on one end. The land is well adapted to raising corn, wheat, cotton, oats, peas, &c., lies high and dry, and is susceptible of the highest improvement. Fronting and looking over, as it does, two large sheets of navigable water, where steamers and sailing vessels are constantly passing, carrying freight and passengers to all parts of the country, its location and surroundings, are of the most fascinating and desirable character. There is a fishery on it ready for working a seine 2,500 yards long, and which commands a portion of both streams of water, and can be made immensely profitable. The price charged is low, and the purchase a very desirable one. The buildings consist of a good two-story dwelling and out-houses.

A desirable house and lot in the town of Elizabeth City on the corner of two principal streets, the principal one, and situated in the best business locality in the town. The lot contains about two acres of land, and the buildings consist of a fair dwelling three stories high, containing eight rooms, all in good order, another two story building with four rooms and pantries, dairy, smokehouses, stables, &c. The dwelling has a good cellar under it. There is room on the front lot to erect two good stores, and they would occupy the best stand in the town for merchandize.

A Farm of 200 acres within one mile of Elizabeth City, with good two story dwelling, large barn and stables, and all necessary outhouses, orchard of fine fruit trees, and a large number of ornamental trees and shrubbery around dwelling. This farm is on one of the most public roads in the County—is in a high state of cultivation—has fine and durable fences, &c. Altogether, it is the richest land and most desirable location, anywhere in the neighborhood of the town. Price $6000—one-half cash, balance in easy payments.

NATURAL FISH GUANO.

I have on hand a quantity of Pure FISH GUANO in its natural state which I will deliver on board of any vessel at Oregon Inlet, N. C., for $25 per ton: or I will deliver it at any landing for $30 per ton.

Considering that the Guano of Commerce costs from $50 to $60 per ton, and so much of it being adulterated, farmers can readily see that it is to their advantage to purchase the purer article I offer them at such reduced rates. Orders sent to me at Roanoke Island will receive prompt attention.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE LAND AND LUMBER COMPANY having a large amount of Real Estate of their own to dispose of, and their business having increased to such an extent, they think it prudent to decline acting further as Commission Agents for the sale of lands belonging to others. They will however be glad at all times to furnish every facility to parties coming to Elizabeth City with a desire to look at the country and make purchases if they find it to their interest to do so.

The following list of property, owned by the Company, is offered for sale on the most reasonable terms. Their object now is to acquire a larger monied capital for the purpose of further developing their unimproved lands and carrying out their original design of increasing the Commerce and General Trade of Elizabeth City.

As there are others in the Commission Business, parties are referred to their advertisement for further information.

ELIZABETH CITY.

The following desirable list of Properties in Elizabeth City are offered at very reduced prices for cash or on time payments at rates which make any of them excellent investments for capitalists. We feel confident that this City is destined to become a large place and property will advance rapidly. Emigration is now tending Southernward and the feeling is in universal favor toward Elizabeth City.

A large two story dwelling known as the Parsonage, with fine double Piazza, front and back, large out kitchen, stables, carriage house, with 17 acres of ground well enclosed. This ground is all within the corporation of the City, and is well situated to lay out in building lots and make out of it ten fold the price asked for it.

A two-story dwelling containing ten rooms, 10,000 gallon cistern and all necessary out-houses, with large lot. Situated on Main Street. A Vacant Lot no better located and not so large as this was sold recently for $1600 cash.

A large brick store house and wharf situate on Water street; in E. City, comprising three lots with 400 feet of water front, permanently wharfed for the accommodation of large vessels. There is erected on these lots a large two-story brick building, 50 by 80 feet, well fitted up for a wholesale or retail trade at present occupied by the "Yankee Store."

A large wood store on west side of Water street 36 by 60, two stories high, being one of the best stands on Water street for merchandizing.

A House and Lot on Riverside Avenue. House 20ft front by 50 ft deep. Containing eight rooms with Pantry and Cellar, all well finished, modern style, and having all necessary out buildings. The lot contains a front of 400 ft, and would be a good location for a large shop or foundry as one whole side fronts on the water.

Also a large number of Wharf Lots, Mill Lots and Vacant Lots at very low prices, some of which are enumerated below. The Wharf Lots are 200ft deep and will be sold to any size desired along the River. Among them are some most eligible situations for Store Houses, Mills and Manufactories of any kind as there is a fine harbor immediately in front of them, having 30ft of water, sufficient for vessels of any capacity. Along Pennsylvania Avenue are offered some of the finest and choicest lots, for dwellings in town at prices varying according to location. This will be the finest street in town, is 80 feet wide, size of Lot 100ft front by 200ft deep. There are now a number of first class residences being erected on this street. Immediately in the vicinity of these Lots the Company have erected a large Planing Mill, Sash, Blind and Door Factory at a cost of near $20,000 and also their Saw Mill at a cost of near $15,000. That now is the proper time to invest in those Lots there can be no doubt, as they will double in value in a very short time. Lots not near so good as these, are now selling in other parts of the City at more than double the price asked for these.

VACANT LOTS.

Lots Nos. 150, 155, 158, 161, 163, 165, 167, 170. 172. 175, 178, 180, 182. 185, 187. 190' 193, 195, 198 and 200, situate on Pennsylvania avenue, in the new extension of Elizabeth City, all choice lots, intended for the better class of residences. Size of lots 100 feet front by 200 feet deep. Price varying, according to location, from $100 to $1000.

TOWN LOTS.

Lots Nos. 250, 253, 255, 256, 258, 261, 263, 266, 267, 268, 271, 283, 285. 287, 288, 289, 291, 296, 299 and 300, situated on various Streets in the new extension of Elizabeth City, size of lots 50 feet front by 100 feet deep, at prices varying from $25 to $100.

MILL LOTS.

Four Mill-Lots situated on Knobb's Creek, so that logs can be taken from the creek to the mill. These lots have 200 feet each of water front, and over 600 feet deep to Mill street, and are choice sites. The purchaser will also have the right of storage for logs in the boom.

PASQUOTANK COUNTY.

The Land and Lumber Company also offer for sale, one thousand acres of their timbered land along the Main Road leading from Elizabeth City to Hertford and Edenton, Said land heavily wooded, soil very rich and about four miles from Elizabeth City. This land will be sold in lots to suit purchasers and at the low price of ten dollars per acre.

They also offer a tract of three thousand acres in Lots to suit purchasers, near the Pasquotank River, ten miles from Elizabeth City and three miles from South Mills. This land is heavily set with wood and also has upon it a vast amount of saw timber, and has a most excellent soil. This is a fine location for a small Colony. There is now a Public Road running directly through it. This tract is offered at the low price of eight dollars per acre if sold to one party, or at only a fraction more if divided into small lots.

The Company will also sell their farm of 150 acres two miles from Elizabeth City. 125 acres cleared and under good cultivation, well fenced, having upon it two dwelling houses, one new and the necessary out buildings wanted on a farm, and will be sold on very reasonable terms.

Also another farm one mile from Elizabeth City containing one hundred acres, between thirty and forty acres cleared and under cultivation, the balance is now being cut off and is nearly ready to be cleared up and cultivated. This property is very desirable being so near the City though for reasons first given will be sold at a very low price.

We have a finely timbered tract of land situated on the Albemarle Sound twenty miles from Elizabeth City, containing 124 acres. Good timber land bordering on the water is valuable both for wood as well as saw timber as water transportation affords a good margin for wood, say one dollar per cord. This will also make good farm land—will be sold for one thousand dollars.

Also one other tract of land containing 154 acres situated immediately on the Pasquotank River ten miles from Elizabeth City, valuable for wood, and is excellent farming lands, would be sold for six dollars per acre.

GATES COUNTY.

The Land & Lumber Company have a tract of 350 acres of timbered land one half mile from Chowan River and three miles from Winton the county seat of Hertford county. This body of land is well timbered and will be sold at the low price of three dollars per acre.

Make Long Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects. They are not a vile Pacey Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequaled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the System in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist, there is scarcely an individual upon the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No system of Medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.
